

Chapter 6 Review:

- Review of ADLs and what they consist of
- Pressure points, bony prominences, pressure injuries, and shearing
- First signs of skin breakdown
- Stages of pressure injuries with definitions of each stage
- Positioning devices (and definitions of each)
- Review cares (complete bed bath, giving a back rub, shampooing hair in bed, giving a shower or tub bath, combing a resident's hair, fingernail care, foot care, combing hair, and shaving)
- How to refer to a resident's weakened side
- Review cares (dressing a resident, applying knee-high elastic stockings, providing oral cares, oral cares for the unconscious resident, and flossing teeth)
- Aspiration
- Dentures and denture care
- Review cares (assisting with use of bedpan, assisting male with urinal, assisting with use of portable commode)
- Positioning a resident (5 positions with definitions of each)
- Review cares (moving a resident up in bed, moving a resident to the side of the bed, positioning a resident on his/her side, logrolling, and assisting a resident to dangle/sit up at side of bed)
- Using a gait belt
- Review cares (Transferring from bed to wheelchair and transferring using a mechanical lift)
- Side of bed should the wheelchair be on when getting a resident out of bed