

Chapter 8 Review:

- Nutrition
- 6 Nutrients (with definitions and examples of each)
- MyPlate icon from USDA
- Healthy fats vs unhealthy fats
- Percentages of fat that milk contains
- Specialty diets and why they are used (low sodium, fluid restricted, low protein, modified calorie, diabetic, vegetarian, liquid, soft/mechanical soft, and pureed)
- Diet consistencies
- Define NPO
- Dehydration
- Serving fresh water
- Edema
- Things that can cause unintended weight loss
- Position angle that residents should be in for eating
- Feeding a resident and assisting a resident to eat
- Clothing protectors
- Define dysphagia and aspiration
- Signs of difficulty swallowing
- Parenteral nutrition, nasogastric tube, PEG tube, and gastrostomy
- Things to observe and report regarding tube feeding
- Dining techniques (assistive devices, physical/verbal cues, imaginary clock face, assisting someone with weak side, visual impairment, Parkinson's, poor sitting balance, poor neck control, biting down, or pocketing food/hold food in mouth)